Building Trust, Coordination & Shared Success

Created By: Dr. Chetankumar Patel

Activity 1 Reflection: Trust, Leadership & Communication

Reflection Questions

- Did too many voices create confusion?
- Was one clear leader more effective?
- Did trust influence success?
- What happens when workplace instructions are unclear?

Core Theory

Workplace Application

Production floor confusion often occurs when multiple supervisors give conflicting instructions. Coordination requires Leadership and Clarity.

"Clear leadership builds Trust. Trust builds team success."

Characteristics of a Good Leader

"A true leader creates clarity, builds trust, and guides the team toward success."

Characteristics of a Good Follower

"Effective followers strengthen leadership, reduce confusion, and drive team success."

Activity 2: “Move Together or Lose Together”

Team Structure

- 3 Teams (8 Members Each)
- Balloon placed between participants (stomach/back)
- Objective: Coordination + Pace Matching

Rules of Play

- No hands touching balloon
- Balloon must stay in place
- Restart/Penalty if balloon falls

“The fastest individual does not make the fastest team.”

Key Reflection

- Did rushing actually help?
- Who adjusted for others?
- Role of patience in success

Workplace Link

- Assembly Lines: Sequential flow
- Shift Handover: Seamless sync
- Departmental: Cross-team pace

20 MINS

Activity 3: “Build to Win Together” – Tower Challenge

20 MINS

Structure & Tools

- 5 Teams (5 Members Each)
- Materials: Paper cups, newspapers, straws, tape
- Task: Build tallest free-standing tower

Rules of Play

- Time limit: 10–12 minutes
- Every member must contribute
- Tower must stand independently

Observation & Discussion

Watch for:

- Leadership emergence
- Planning vs Randomness
- Role assignment

Questions:

- Did planning help?
- Who took initiative?
- What failed?

Objective: Strategic Coordination

Strategy + Shared Responsibility = Sustainable Success

Teamwork is everyone doing their role effectively, not everyone doing everything.

“Strategy + Shared Responsibility = Sustainable Success”

Session End Status: Core Competencies Realized

Participants Have Experienced:

- Trust
- Shared Accountability
- Coordination
- Leadership
- Cooperation

Ask yourself....

“What made you win?”

“Great teams are not built by strength alone, but by trust, coordination, and shared responsibility.”
